

Das Totale Tanz Theater is an intense experience, also physically.

Taking part in it happens at your own risk and responsibility.

We do not recommend the experience to people, who suffer from physical ailments such as heart conditions, epilepsy, extrem fear of heights or a tendency towards motion sickness.

Please wait to be guided into the installation by a member of the staff and leave your belongings in the lockers or at the coat check. Please do not take anything into the installation space. Smaller handbags can be left in the basket by the console during the duration of the experience. The festival or staff are not liable for lost or stolen goods.

Children which are at least 12 years old are allowed to participate, when accompanied by an adult.

We keep the right to deny access to the installation to anyone who acts in a way that could jeopardise the experience.
